

The good just keeps on getting better for cruise passengers who arrive in Galveston for a long-awaited vacation to the crystal blue waters of the Caribbean and beyond.

Only Royal Caribbean offers families a collection of complimentary first-at-sea experiences that challenge all limitations, along with signature favorites that delight all ages.

When you compare what we offer with a land-based vacation, nothing else beats the wide variety of family-friendly activities, dining venues and incredible entertainment we offer – and it's all included in your cruise fare!
